CHOIR ON WAY TO PACIFIC COAST

Special Train of Nine Cars Takes It.

TRIP TO BE TEN DAYS LONG

PLEASANT DIVERSIONS ARE PLANNED FOR MEMBERS.

Salt Lake's Tabernacle choir is singing its way to the coast. The big body of choristers pulled out of the Oregon Short Line depot yesterday morning on a special train consisting of Seven sleepers, one day coach and a baggage car. A party representing the Ogden Junction City. The train left the de-pot at 9 o'clock and all the friends and relatives of the singers appeared to be on hand to see them off. Sev-eral hundred persons went there out of curiosity to see the excursionists start and the depot for a spell pre-sented an animated appearance.

There are about 400 in the party and they will be gone ten days. On the way out the party will sing at the various stations where they happen to stop. They expect to reach Sacramento today at noon and will spend the rest of the afternoon there. On the following day they will go to Pacific Grove. Thursday will be spent at San Jose and the Stanford university, and Friday will find them in Santa Cruz. The party will reach San Francisco on Friday and will spend the remainder of the time there in sightseeing.

An elaborate programme is kild out for the singers at San Francisco, where they will be entertained as well as entertain. All the public places of interest will be visited and a number of organizations are planning there to give the choir a reception which will be preceded by a concert. The choir expects to sing its way into the hearts of the feedple it happens to meet and, incito sing its way into the hearts of the people it happens to meet and, incidentally, it will spread the fame of Utah on the wings of song.

The coast is now at its best. The great tropical plants are flowering and the fruits of the south are ripening. San Francisco, with its historic sites. San Francisco, with its historic sites and magnificent buildings, will keep the visitors busy for several days. Among the leading musicians in the party are Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Ashworth, Willard Squires, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Best, Nettle Raleigh, Evan Stephens, Dott Stay, Lottie Owen, Mrs. John Winder, Mrs. Lizzie Thomas Edward and J. J. Mc-Clellan.

Hmusements

It looked for a time at the Grand last night as if there certainly would be a lynching. The audience became indignant over the actions of two people on the stage, and kept on growing more indignant all the time. This was not because the acting was too bad but because it was too good. There was a man villain who would surely have been roughly handled by the spectators if the playwright hadn't put a finish on him in due season. The same thing would have happened to the lady villain if she hadn't been properly punished at the wind-up of the play. It looked for a time at the Grand las will object to that, because he has a strenious part. No fault could be found with any other member of the company.

It is not necessary to tell the story of "Human Hearts." The play is well and fayorably known in Salt Lake and MILLINERY OPENING and favorably known in Salt Lake and there is excitement in almost every line of it, from the murder of Old Man Logan in the first act to the undoing of the criminals in the last. There is also a lot of clever comedy in the piece. On the whole, "Human Hearts," as offered by the company now at the Grand, is well worth seeing and the engagement should be notable for its big business. The play runs through Wednesday night with the usual Wednesday matinee.

Wednesday night with the usual Wednesday matinee.

The Grand management announces a special Friday matinee for "The Man From Mexico," beginning at 3 o'clock. The engagement is for Thursday and Friday only, so there will be no Saturday matinee this week.
